Helena Saxon, Chief Financial Officer, to leave Investor during Q2 2025

Helena Saxon, Chief Financial Officer (CFO), will be leaving Investor during the second quarter of 2025. A search for her successor will be initiated.

Helena has worked at Investor since 2010. She has a background in the investment organization of the company, and she has been CFO and member of the Executive Leadership Team since 2015. She is also a board member of Investor's portfolio companies SEB and Sobi.

"For nearly 10 years Helena has been an important contributor to the strong development of Investor, as a highly regarded member of the Executive Leadership Team. With her drive and competence, she has contributed to the development and execution of Investor's strategy and has, through her inclusive and engaging leadership built a strong and professional organization. We have agreed that now is a good time to initiate a change. I am grateful that Helena will continue in her role until the second quarter of 2025", Christian Cederholm, Investor's President and CEO comments.

"It has been an honor and a privilege to work with all the competent and value-driven colleagues at Investor. I am proud of having contributed to our important purpose of creating value by building strong and sustainable businesses. I am looking forward to an orderly transition in the coming year", Helena Saxon says.
