PATRICIA EXERCISES SAAB-SCANIA OPTION

Investor och Providentia have today, through their jointly owned company Patricia, exercised the option to acquire 13 million shares in Saab-Scania from Barkman & Co, Sven-Olof Johansson and others.

The block of shares consists of 12.660.000 Saab-Scania A restricted and 340.000 Saab-Scania A nonrestricted, corresponding to 19.1 percent of the capital stock and 22 percent of the voting rights, at a price of SEK 330 per share, i.e. a total cost of SEK 4.3 billion.

After the acquisition, Investor, Providentia and Patricia together hold 43 percent of the capital stock and 49.5 percent of the voting rights in Saab-Scania.

The purchase is being financed through the credit facilities that Investor and Providentia have launched in the Swedish and foreign capital markets.

The objective of this acquisition is to create an ownership structure in Saab-Scania, that will contribute to the development of the company's long-term potential. This activity is in progress.
