PRESS RELEASE

New Saab Group is announced

On February 22, 1995 it was announced that Saab-Scania - which has been a wholly owned subsidiary of Investor AB since 1991 - will be divided into two separate, incorporated companies, Scania AB and Saab AB.

The organizational change will formally take effect on May 16, 1995, at Saab-Scania´s annual general meeting.

Following the reorganization, Saab-Scania will be renamed Saab AB, which will be the parent company of the Saab Group. The Group will comprise Saab Military Aircraft, Saab Dynamics, Saab Training Systems, Saab Aircraft and Saab Combitech.

Scania, which manufactures heavy trucks, buses and engines, has been a separate legal entity since the beginning of 1994.

Saab Automobile will be owned 50% by Investor AB and 50% by General Motors.

Attached is a description of Saab Group´s new capital structure pro forma as of January 1, 1995, a capital structure that gives Saab a solid financial platform for the future. The Group´s equity amounts to SEK 5,750 million, of which the large part is shareholders´ equity in the parent company.
