DISCLOSURE NOTICE

Rune Andersson, who has been proposed as new Chairman of the Board of Electrolux, following the resignation of Anders Scharp, has acquired today, in a company of his own, 100,000 shares in Electrolux. Investor AB is the seller of the shares.

The block of shares corresponds to 4.8 percent of the votes and 0.1 percent of the capital in Electrolux. Following the sale, Investor's holding in Electrolux amounts to 836,478 A shares and 923,500 B shares, corresponding to 40.9 percent of the votes and 2.5 percent of capital.

Should the Annual General Meeting of Electrolux implement the decision of a change in the voting strength of the B share, in line with a recently published proposal, the acquired shares will represent a voting proportion of 1.1 percent of the total votes.
