PRESS RELEASE

Pia Rudengren New CFO at Investor And Member of Management Group

Pia Rudengren, deputy chief financial officer, has been named to the post of chief financial officer at Investor, taking over from Marcus Wallenberg, who in addition to his capacity as executive vice president and deputy chief executive officer, was serving as chief financial officer during the past year.

Pia, who is currently on maternity leave, will officially move into the job as of September 1 this year, at which point she will become a member of the Management Group.

A graduate of the Stockholm School of Economics, she holds a master's degree in economics, majoring in finance.

She joined Investor in 1990, where as associate corporate finance, she was responsible for corporate finance projects and research analysis. She had primary responsibility for Astra, SAS, TV4 and Svenska Dagbladet.

From 1994 to 1996, she was head of corporate finance and equity trading, overseeing, among other things, the Scania IPO, the Saab Automobile Agreement, and the restructuring of Incentive.

Pia is currently chairman of Ericsson Project Finance. She is also a board member of Asticus and GHH Grand Hôtel Holdings AB and is an alternate on the board of Saab Automobile.
